WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

Social Calendar.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grinnan as guests. Dancing party in Hotel and with dancing lessons at home. A K. clambaking party at Kennedy restaurant.

Y. W. A. popularity party in Y. W. home.

French Ball Future Event.

One of the largest holiday events being organized, the French ball to be given in connection with the evening of December 29, will be a benefit for the Fatherless Children's Fund Society here. Miss H. C. Ashby, who is chairman of the executive committee, which is composed of Misses Ashby, Perdita Mason and Mrs. William Miller Cook, has called a meeting in her home of this committee and the vice-chairman for Fatherless morning of December 28 when plans were fully discussed. The other chairman are Misses Earl W. Simon, John M. Stockham, E. Roger Keppel, Charles H. Hubbard, J. T. Cassidy, T. K. Shultz and Miss H. C. Ashby. This benefit is for a very deserving cause, as all America well knows. This society, a national one, is doing a wonderful philanthropic work in assisting the orphans of France. This did a great bit toward helping during the latter part of the war. The present work is in the hands of a new group and the fact that the prominent women named are sponsors for the benefit, assures its success.

Farewell Party.

Mrs. Ruth Kramer, who is leaving for Kansas City, entertained a group of her friends at her Wash dinner and refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Patty Johnson, Floy Rheaume, Claire Anderson, Louise Beard, May Freeman, Florence Marshall, Catherine Wise, Agatha Reed, Marie Bodine, Masters, Edward Dixon, Parker Moore, Henry Davis, William Clinton, Robert Eperson and Henry Dan.

Sphinx Club.

There will be a meeting of the Sphinx club in the Masonic hall Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The club will meet with Ada Court, Ladies Shrine. Hostesses will be Madames P. J. Murray, F. D. Evans, B. H. Sands, O. T. Dawson and Mrs. A. W. Weaver. There will be an interesting program followed with a social session when refreshments will be served.

Christmas Party.

The Needicrafters will meet Tuesday afternoon December 15, with Mrs. R. C. Hosson assisting business being Madames Earl Thomas and Mrs. P. E. Porter. At this time the club will have its annual Christmas party.

CLUB EVENTS

Bible Class.

The Ladies Little Class of the First Methodist church will meet this afternoon in the home of Mrs. William E. Stoner, 1117 South Denver avenue at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Christmas Music.

Mrs. Oral Sigmund, first district chairman of the National Federation of Music clubs has received word from headquarters that again, as last year, this organization will foster Christmas music. The Christmas Carol singers are advocated. A movement will be started to have Christmas music sung in the picture houses and on the streets Christmas eve. The idea is to have the school children take an active part in this work. Americanization in Music is the keynote of the work of the na-
